

Test Your GenQ

		Silents	Boomers	Xers	Millennials
1.	Practical, dedicated and respectful in their view of the business world.
2.	A management tip: don't micromanage them.
3.	Poodle skirts, pop beads and TV dinners are fond memories.
4.	They swing to the Big Band sounds of Glen Miller.
5.	The first to enjoy MTV.
6.	To them, Mick Jagger has always been old.
7.	Pet rocks, Cabbage Patch dolls and platform shoes are whose memories?
8.	They are focused and hardworking, used to multitasking and managing busy schedules.
9.	The Challenger disaster, the fall of the Berlin Wall: defining events.
10.	"I'm not going to work all the time like my parents. I'm going to have balance in my life."
11.	"I believe in respecting authority; my boss is in charge and that's OK with me."
12.	Optimistic, driven and service-oriented describe them on the job.
13.	They might not know what you mean when you say, "You sound like a broken record."
14.	Suburbia, television, the Race for Space: defining events or trends.
15.	With diverse family structures and working parents, they became known as "latchkey kids."
16.	Kewpie dolls, jukeboxes and Dagwood & Blondie: mere memories.				